BULLETIN - MSNBC/NBC News Now Organizing

In a major step forward for workplace democracy, the Regional Director of Region 2 of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) has issued a Direction of Election in NABET-CWA Local 11's union organizing campaign for technicians at MSNBC and NBC News Now. The Union prevailed at a hearing over the Company's objection to the proposed bargaining unit.

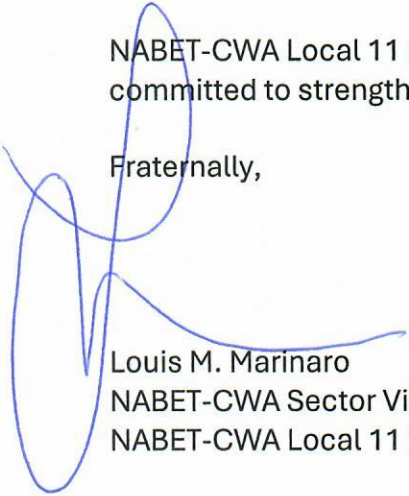

This decision clears the way for the NLRB to conduct a union election among all full-time and daily hire technical employees working on MSNBC or NBC News Now productions in the New York City Metropolitan Area.

The election will be conducted by secret mail ballot, ensuring that every eligible worker has a private and fair opportunity to decide whether they wish to be represented by NABET-CWA for the purposes of collective bargaining. The final vote count is scheduled for 10:00 AM on Wednesday, August 27, 2025, at the NLRB Region 2 office in Manhattan.

This election gives employees the chance to stand together and have a voice in their own future at the workplace.

NABET-CWA Local 11 represents broadcast and media workers across New York and is committed to strengthening labor rights and raising standards across the industry.

Fraternally,

Louis M. Marinaro
NABET-CWA Sector Vice President
NABET-CWA Local 11 President
