NBA Entertainment CONTRACT NEGOTIATIONS UPDATE

NABET-CWA Local 11 is preparing to begin negotiations with NBA Entertainment (NBAE) for a successor Collective Bargaining Agreement. The current agreement is set to expire on January 1, 2027.

In preparation for bargaining, the Union has formed a Bargaining Committee, gathered feedback from members regarding their concerns and priorities, and developed a set of proposals aimed at improving wages, benefits, and working conditions. Our proposals will be specifically tailored for the unique issues our members face while working at NBAE.

Negotiations are scheduled to begin in person on Wednesday, November 18, 2026, in Secaucus, New Jersey.

We look forward to representing our members at the bargaining table and will provide regular updates as negotiations progress.

In Solidarity,

NABET-CWA Local 11 NBAE Bargaining Committee

Louis M. Marinaro, NABET-CWA Sector Vice President, NABET-CWA Local 11 President
Max H. Sicherman Esq., General Counsel
Scott Robblee, Executive Board Member
Joe Orecchio, Executive Board Member
